

CALL FOR ENTRIES

The Philadelphia Chapter of the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art is excited to announce the Second Biennial Trumbauer Awards, to be bestowed on Thursday, November 15th, 2018. The awards program honors exemplary work in contemporary classical architecture, design, planning, and the allied arts. It is named in recognition of the work of internationally renowned, native Philadelphia architect Horace Trumbauer (1868-1938) and recognizes contemporary projects characterized by the breadth and inclusiveness present in his work. Trumbauer's extraordinary success followed modest professional and social beginnings, and he was unrivaled in the early 20th century in American architecture for the number and magnificence of his projects. "When Philadelphia boasts of its native sons, as occasionally it does the architects among them, let the place of Horace Trumbauer be the first of the chosen," Henry Hope Reed wrote of Trumbauer.

The jury will have latitude in defining categories of projects to receive awards, selecting which categories receive an award, and in granting special citations. Not every category will receive an award. Designers are encouraged to submit projects, regardless of whether they fit neatly into the categories described above. All projects, except for student work, are required to be constructed.

Call for Entries

The category of Architectural Arts / Craftsmanship is intended for individuals and companies in the allied arts (i.e. iron work, woodwork, plaster, masonry, decorative painting etc.) while the category of Fine Arts is intended for individuals in painting and sculpture.

The category of Ancillary Structure is intended for secondary structures to a primary building such as garages, sheds, barns, pool houses, garden follies etc.

Both Large and Small Architecture – Non-Residential is intended to include all Commercial, Institutional, Civic, and Ecclesiastical Submissions.

Entrants in the Patronage / Stewardship category are intended to recognize the contributions by people or companies who have been exceptional supporters of classical architecture, urbanism, or the allied arts. They can be either self-nominated or submitted by others; and may be either an individual or organization with a strong connection to the Philadelphia Chapter area.

Entrants submitting in the student category must be currently enrolled or recent graduates (not more than five years) of an undergraduate, masters, or certificate program located in the United States. Student submissions are encouraged to have some connection to the Philadelphia Chapter area, such as the home of the project or school. Membership in the ICAA is not required for students.
